PLAYING THE GAME

Texas Hold'em is one of the most popular traditional poker games today... one of the reasons is that "any two cards can win." The same holds for the new Texas Hold'em Bonus Poker. The best "hole cards" (2-card starting hand) sometimes will not win... and the worst starting hand (hole cards) sometimes becomes the winning poker hand after all of the community cards are exposed.

HOW TO PLAY TEXAS HOLD'EM BONUS POKER

Two cards are dealt to each player, two cards to the dealer and five Community Cards are dealt face-up in the center for both Players and Dealer to use in any combination (3, 4 or all of the 5 Community Cards may be used) to make the highest-ranked poker hand.

How the Betting works:

Ante: Each Player makes an Ante wager to receive 2 cards.

Bonus: Players also have the option to place a Bonus Jackpot wager.

2-cards: A 2-card hand is dealt to each Player and the Dealer.

Flop or Fold: Players wishing to continue to play must wager twice the amount of the Ante wager on the Flop wager. Players not wishing to continue may hand in their 2 cards and forfeit the Ante wager.

3-cards: 3 Community cards are now placed "face up" on the table. Players now have the option to not bet or bet equal to the Ante.

Turn: A 4th Community Card is turned face up on the table. Players now have the option to not bet or bet equal to the Ante.

River: A 5th Community Card is turned face up on the table.

Each player uses their 2-card hand along with 3, 4, or all of the 5 Community cards to make the best poker hand.

Any two cards can win!

No Player to Player competition.

Each Player plays against the Dealer.

Best Poker-ranking hand wins.

Optional side bet Bonus wager plays against a posted pay table (not the dealer's hand).

When a Player wins, the Player retains their Ante and is paid even money on the Flop + Turn + River wagers.

All poker-ranked hands of equal value between the Player and the Dealer will be considered a "tie" or "push" whereas no money will be collected or paid.

Players who have made an Ante Wager have the option to make a Bonus Jackpot wager. Bonus Jackpot wagers are paid no matter who wins the hand (Player or Dealer).
